

Route of Love in Belize

Day 1 – Welcome to Belize

Arrival in Belize City, transfer to the hotel for rest.

Day 2 – LAMANAI

Breakfast at the hotel. Few experiences in Belize combine wildlife, waterways, and world-class archaeology like Lamanai.

Your day unfolds with a scenic boat ride along the New River, home to howler monkeys, crocodiles, turtles, and tropical birds, before arriving at Lamanai ("submerged crocodile").

On land, you will explore a vast ceremonial center anchored by the High Temple (climb to the top for panoramic views), the Jaguar Temple, and the iconic Mask Temple with its giant carved stone faces. Throughout, your guide will connect carvings, plazas, and causeways with Maya beliefs, rituals, and governance. This is a complete and balanced adventure: river nature observation, immersive ruins, museum context, and a hearty Belizean lunch.

Day 3 – Altun Ha & Transfer to San Pedro

Located just one hour from Belize City, Altun Ha ("Water of the Rock") is an ideal introduction to the world of the ancient Maya.

The site flourished between 250 BC and 900 AD, with more than 500 structures spread across plazas and temple-pyramids. This accessible tour combines archaeology, wildlife, and a tranquil forest setting in a relaxed, family-friendly format. Highlights include the Temple of the Masonry Altars (54 ft / 16 m), the Temple of the Green Tomb, and the story of the largest carved jade head in the Maya world, representing the sun god Kinich Ahau. Guided walks bring to life rituals, trade, and daily life, while the on-site museum deepens your understanding with excavated artifacts and jade objects.

In the afternoon, transfer to San Pedro, Ambergris Caye.
